Chamber of Commerce for Englewood.

A United Effort to Be Made by All Englewood Business Men to Put Our Town on the Map.

Arrangements for the opening of the campaign for the building of a stronger and more united business and civic spirit in Englewood and the 63rd St. district were completed at the Wednesday luncheon of the Englewood Commercial association by the members.

Following an investigation by a special committee the club voted unanimously to retain the Standard Service company as directors and counselors in the campaign. Details will be completed by the president, E. M. Bowen, and the club committee, and the active work will start within the next few days.

Fully 75 members of the association attended the noon luncheon and showed unbounded enthusiasm in the event of building a better and bigger organization. Mr. Wagner of the Standard Service company was present at the meeting and delivered a short address, outlining the work of the campaign. Mr. Wagner is an organizer of prominence and long experience. He said in part:

"The widespread feeling of need for a better and stronger bond of unity and co-operation is the propelling force which has brought about the reorganization campaign of the Englewood club. It is an acknowledgement that the business men intend to stand together in making their community a live business and civic center in the great world market of Chicago.

"With the support which is evidenced, the citizens of Englewood can look forward in the next few weeks to the molding of a better spirit and business ready to open the business of 1917 on a permanent basis of harmony and co-operation.

"The campaign about to be entered into is one for every branch of community life to participate in. It will effect the home, schools, churches, as well as the commercial interests. The educational work will accomplish things which have never before been believed possible.

"The commercial association will be brought to its rightful standing in Englewood. It will be made the community's biggest business, and if this mark is not attained it will not be big enough for the business men of Englewood. It is to be made the institution through which all the commercial, moral, civic, and social questions will be handled. The association will be made a place where men and women can meet upon a common ground and discuss questions vital to every individual that comes under the Englewood sphere of influence.

"The rejuvenation of the organization is not for a particular clique, but for every individual particularly interested in the development of the 63rd St. district of Chicago. To work with the men who are making this change in the community will be a privilege and an opportunity. The conducting of a campaign means hard work, it means sacrifice—but nothing is worth while without sacrifice.

"When the organization campaign is completed the newly born commercial association will be established on the departmental plan, a business basis which is being conducted with unprecedented success in hundreds of cities and communities in every part of the country. Through it the latent talents of Englewood will be brought to light and directed to good."

The address was received with the hearty enthusiasm usually manifested by the 63rd St. business men. Following the luncheon the speaker was conducted on a short introductory trip through the district to be effected by the campaign. Everywhere there seemed a cordial welcome for the men, and leaders in Englewood predict the most successful campaign ever conducted for the community.

Disagreeable Noises on "L" Road Unnecessary

The nerve-shattering squeaking of the elevated trains as they round the curves has become a terrible nuisance in Englewood, and might easily be abolished or at least moderated by a liberal application of oil or solid grease on the rails. As bad as the noise is in the daytime, at night it is excruciating, and people living within four or five blocks of the curves are kept awake and driven wild by the unearthly disagreeable noise. We believe the management should be appealed to to remedy this nuisance, and if they pass it up we think the ordinance against noise and nuisances would apply. Why not have the Commercial club and the other improvement organizations take up this matter and see what they can do?

City Wards Should Be Redistricted

A glance over the voting capacity of the different wards will show the need of redistricting them to a more equitable standard, and incidentally will show that wards of 7,000 voters have the same representation in the city council as those of nearly 50,000. The last redistricting was made on purely political lines, and to preserve certain territory in the limits, that certain aldermen might be re-elected, and little regard was paid to population or geographical conditions, and as a result some of the wards look like an angleworm, while others are symmetrical. In justice to the people, there should be representation according to population, and districts as large as the Englewood wards should have more representation in the city council. Alderman Rea has brought the matter up in the city council, and he should receive every encouragement to push the matter through before the next spring election.

The many friends of the late Mrs. Rose Kelly were pained and deeply shocked to hear of her sudden death, which occurred Friday morning, November 18th at her home, 540 W. 58th St., where she has been a resident the last 30 years. A kind and beautiful character, she was highly respected and loved by all who knew her, and will be deeply mourned and sadly missed in the community. The funeral was largely attended Sunday, 9 a. m., from her home to St. Ann's church, where an impressive sermon was preached referring "to the faithful religious life" she had always lived. Mrs. Kelly was the widow of the late Peter B. Kelly, devoted mother of Lulu and Edwin, the late May and Wilbert—aunt to Sister Mary Kelly of St. Bernard's parish, and left besides these, her two sisters who arrived from Canada, Saturday, and many relatives to deeply mourn her loss. May her soul rest in peace.

Criminal Raising of Prices on Food

The action of food purveyors in increasing the prices of food products until starvation threatens the poor and inconveniences even the well-to-do, is absolutely criminal, and the most strenuous efforts of the government should be brought to bear to bring the guilty ones to justice. It is ridiculous to charge this all to the great bugbear of war, or to political causes; it is simply the rapacity of the middleman and even the retailer and speculators, who are holding back produce to keep the market price up beyond reason. There are millions of tons of food products in storage warehouses and even in cars on side tracks right here in Chicago, yet we are paying famine prices for these goods that a few speculators and dishonest dealers may make extraordinary profits. It is bad enough to be compelled to have to pay the natural increase in prices, due to the foreign demands and the waste of war, but to be robbed indiscriminately on our home products by predatory trusts, combines and individual greedy dealers is more than the people should be called upon to stand. History tells us of times when granaries were ransacked and the food denied the people was taken by force, and if the present conditions continue, we may look for a repetition. We are creditably informed that everyone handling products, from the producer to the consumer, exacts a larger profit than ever before, and now it has reached a point where it is a severe struggle for even the well-to-do to live, and a $100-a-month income means privation. If the government can't remedy this crying evil the people will be compelled to rise up in their might and help themselves.

Our paper will be a day late next week, as all of our force will celebrate Thanksgiving day.

There isn't a bit of difference between the dollar you lose from a hole in your pocket and the dollar wasted by your flat flame gas jet.

To sew up the pocket and ignore the gas jet, after all we have told you about its wastefulness, is little short of padded-cell-folly.

Unless you have money to throw in rat holes, you should be prompted by the high cost of pork chops and baby shoes, to move as fast to stop one waste as you would to stop the other.

"Dearie" can mend the hole in the pocket—we can send a representative to replace your wasteful flat flame jets with Amber Glow Lights.

Why not take an invoice of your lights now? Phone Wabash 6000—ask for the House Lighting Department—tell us where the offending flat flames are located—we will replace them promptly, at a small first cost, with—which yield five times the light of the flat flame burner at considerably less cost per hour.

Ask us, too, for the printed story of the Amber Glow Light—a story with many colored illustrations telling why amber light is easiest on the eyes—why it prevents eye strain—why it enhances the beauty of my lady's complexion—why it brings out the harmonies of dress and room decoration, etc.

EMPRESS THEATRE

The holiday season brings to the popular Empress theatre the best line of attractions at any time of the year. Many of the special and vaudeville people appearing at this time and Matinee Harry Mitchell being well known to most of the patrons of this house, playing Eight most attractive the benefit of [illegible] and leading attractions which usually play only the larger houses at the Thousand at the Empress bargain prices. The variety and scope of this house in the amusement line is noticeable, as the programs have a diversified character from song and dance to wonders and mysteries in skill and science, while their moving pictures are of the highest character and with absolutely the latest features. A winning card for the Empress is the early matinee for women and children, and they certainly show that they appreciate it by the numerous audiences they bring. Such a thing as a dollar show for a dime is what keeps other managers guessing how Mr. Mitchell does it. There are always two evening shows and if you can't get there in time for the first you have the second show; both are the same and absolutely no "continue" is allowed at any performance. The matinees are the same as the night shows, and the programs change twice a week, so that no stale work is offered. The Empress is the best-heated and ventilated house in town, and the most comfortably seated so that everything is done for the comfort and amusement of the audiences and you are sure of a good time any afternoon or evening.

ENGLEWOOD THEATRE

An attraction that is welcomed by theatre managers and the public alike is "The Frolics of 1917," announced for the Englewood theatre starting Sunday, November 26, with matinee every day. The coming welcomes the "Frolics of 1917" because it means a packed house and the forier the coming of the one big burlesque show with supported by Miss Gladys Sears, burlesques favorite comedienne, and Miss Lillian Lippman, the prima donna, coloratura soprano; there is Frank Wesson, Madge Stewart, Al. Bayeob, Jim Hazelton, Kamakiri Twins and the famous Stampede Girls chorus, all young and cute. The Four Haley Sisters will appear at every performance, in addition to Fred Le Reine and company, the human dynamos, as an olio feature attraction. The musical numbers are from the best producers of popular airs and include: "Alabam," "When I Dream of Anne Laurie," "I Didn't Know That Lovin' Was So Good," "Down in Dixie," "Kangaroo Hop," "Welcome Honey to Your Old Plantation Home," "Turkish Rag." The two burlettas, "A Ragtime Harem," and "It Happened in Paris," have both class and speed and offer ample opportunities to the principals and chorus alike to bring out their individual talents. Don't miss a good thing; it will be here Sunday.

Fred La Reine, the Electrical Wizzard, With His Own Company—Next Week.

A show with the most clever comedians headed by the Emerald wit, Arthur Connolly, "the little lad." A premier laugh producer. A show with the best cast of principals, the best of shapely girls and the most elaborate scenic and costume production on tour. With the announcement this season that the show is all new and assurance that it is better than anything offered in years, the public may well anticipate the coming of the "Frolics of 1917" with great pleasure. In addition to Arthur Connolly, who is

The best people in Englewood patronize the Harvard theatre. It is their logical home for clean and elevating amusement. Ask any regular patron for an opinion as to how the Harvard compares with other theatres.

Have you watched the gigantic features this unexcelled playhouse has been offering each and every day? Not a big production now and then but a big production every day without exception. There is no particular time to drop in for a special show. Any time is the time, for you will never find a mediocre production at this theatre, as only the biggest and best attractions obtainable are booked for this house. Program for the week as follows:

Friday, Nov. 24—Admission 5c and 10c—Vitagraph Blue Ribbon features present William Duncan, Nell Shipman and George Holt in a great mystery story, "Through the Wall." A Greater Vitagraph feature in six parts, written by Cleveland Moffet. "Conceded by all as the best detective drama ever produced on the stage or screen." See the real scenes of a submarine torpedoing a big Atlantic liner. Also Metro Travelogue and a good comedy.

Saturday, Nov. 25—Matinee 2 to 5:30 p. m.; children 5c, adults 10c. Evening 6:30 to 11 p. m.; adults 15c, children 10c. Triangle Photoplays present the popular stage star, H. B. Warner, with Dorothy Dalton, in Thos. H. Ince's production of love, romance and adventure, "The Vagabond Prince." A colorful tale of a petted young nobleman who came to America in search of adventure and became the dominant figure in a delightful romance. Full of "pep" and "snap." Also a scream two-part Keystone comedy.

Sunday, Nov. 26—Continuous 2 to 11 p. m. Matinee 5c and 10c. Evening 10c and 15c. Special double feature program. The king of the comedians, Charlie Chaplin, in his newest and funniest screen success, "Behind the Scenes." A surprisingly funny sketch of life in a movie studio. Also Frances Nelson in "The Decoy." A thrilling five-part drama of society gambles.

Monday, Nov. 27—Jane Grey and Frank Mills in "The Flower of Faith." Also Earl Williams in a new Vitagraph feature.

Tuesday, Nov. 28—Barney Bernard, the renowned Hebrew comedian, in "A Prince in a Pawnshop." A big five-reel feature that everyone should see.

Wednesday, matinee and evening—The great Triangle feature, "Somewhere in France," by Richard Harding Davis. Produced by Thomas H. Ince in five parts, featuring Louise Glaum and Howard Hickman. Also a scream two-part Keystone comedy.

Thursday, Nov. 30—Thanksgiving day matinee and evening. Robert Warwick and Gail Kane in a visualization of the fine of Nathan Hale, founded on the play by Clyde Fitch in six parts "The Heart of a Hero." Also Burton Holmes Travelogues "Through Ireland."

THANKSGIVING DAY, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 30TH, MATINEE AND EVENING.

H. B. WARNER AND DOROTHY DALTON IN TRIANGLE-KAY BEE FEATURE, "A VAGABOND PRINCE."

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 25TH, MATINEE AND EVENING.

E. A. R. THEATRE

The E. A. R. is essentially the neighborhood house for ladies and children, and every effort is made to make their visits to this pretty house most enjoyable. Its cleanliness, superior ventilation and absolute good order is strong in its favor, and the entertaining feature is the music on the big pipe organ by that prince of organists, Robert Stronach, who has few equals and no superiors in the city.

Friday, Nov. 24—Metro 7 to 11 p. m. Bushman and Bayne in "Diplomatic Service," five reels. "Capable Lady Cook," comedy.

Saturday, Nov. 25, 2 to 6, 7 to 11 p. m.—Triangle—Mae Marsh and Robert Harron in "Little Liar," five reels. Mack Swain in "Vampire Ambrose," two-reel Keystone.

Sunday, Nov. 26, 2 to 11 p. m., continuous — Bluebird — "Saving the Family Name," five reels, by Lois Weber. Fay Tincher in "French Milliner," two-reel Keystone.

Monday, Nov. 27, 7 to 11 p. m.—Triangle—By request, English actor, Sir Herbert Tree will be shown in "The Old Folks at Home" five reels. One of the best of Triangle plays. Fay Tincher in "A Lady Drummer," two-reel Keystone. Come early to avoid the crowd.

Tuesday, Nov. 28, 7 to 11—No children admitted—Louise Glaum and Charles Ray in "The Wolf Woman," five reels. This is the play in which Triangle star wears startling creations designed by herself. In no previous production has Louise Glaum been given such an opportunity to exercise her originality in the creation of gowns as that which was afforded her in "The Wolf Woman," the Triangle "vampire" story by C. Gardner Sullivan, in which she is presented by Thomas H. Ince as co-star with Charles Ray. In all she prepared twelve gowns, each of which is displayed to advantage throughout the action of the play. The gown which is perhaps most appropriate to the character she portrays is the "devil gown," so called because of its similarity to the robes worn by the generally accepted likenesses of Mephisto. It is of a lustrous red silk, fitting just snugly enough to accentuate the lines of the wearer's figure and with a cape to match, depending from the shoulders. A tightly worn headdress of spangles, with a protruding feather, completes this creation. The whole materially aided Miss Glaum in illustrating the serpentine charms of the character. Most gorgeous of the gowns worn by Miss Glaum in the play is termed by her "the peacock." This is a clinging thing of varicolored silk, with a train and headdress of genuine peacock feathers. Also a good one-reel Keystone comedy.

Wednesday, Nov. 29, 7 to 11—Bluebird—Mary MacLaren (who starred in "Shoes") in "Wanted—a Home," five reels. Devotees of the motion picture will recall with pleasure the sweet-faced blonde girl who was the suffering heroine of "Shoes" and the maligned victim of society in "Saving the Family Name," and to the following Mary MacLaren has created as a Bluebird leading lady the news will be welcome that she will return in "Wanted—a Home," a third feature Lois Weber has created for her special exploitation. This time Miss MacLaren plays the role of an orphan girl, compelled to begin early in life the battle for an existence. Against great odds she struggles to live righteously and still clothe and feed herself in semblance of respectability and wholesomeness, succeeding unexpectedly in winning the battle and "living happy ever after." Also Pathe News, all the world's events in pictures.

Thursday, Nov. 30—Holiday matinee, 2 to 11, continuous—Frank Mills and Jane Grey in "Flower of Faith," five reels. Also good comedy.

Coming—"Forbidden Fruit," Alice Brady in "Bought and Paid For," Mary Pickford day, first in Englewood, "Less Than the Dust," Mme. Petrova in "Extravagance," Douglas Fairbanks in "Manhattan Madness," "Unborn." Watch for dates.

His Intentions.

"Young man," said the stern parent, with the accent on the "young," "do you intend to stay here all night holding my daughter's hand and looking into her face like a calf?" "No, sir." "What do you intend to do, then?" "Well, I had thought, when you had done us the kindness to retire, that I would put my arm round her waist, and, if she did not object, I might risk giving her a kiss."

Unhappy Success.

A prudent man has his moments of depression when it seems as if his wife's running account at the dry goods store must be trying for the sprinting record and, what is worse, succeeding.—Columbus (O.) Journal.

LINDEN PHOTODROME

NOTICE!

Is there another program where you can find the stars week in and week out that you see at the Linden? We want you to make it your theatre. See reading notice of our coming pictures which afford many surprises.

Friday, November 24—"Where Are My Children?" with Mary MacLaren, Tyrone Power, Marie Walcamp and many others; scenario and story by that brilliant genius of filmdom, Lois Weber, exposing the destruction of the unborn. The worst crime of the present age. Be sure to see it on this date. No children will be admitted.

Saturday, November 25—Gladys Brockwell in "Sins of Her Parent." A mother's wrong gives strong theme to this photoplay. On one hand is the southerner, the man of proud family, who will not see his name dragged in the dust, on the other is the girl who loves the southerner's son and cannot marry him because of her own uncertain birth. The struggle between these two and the final agreement of their views in the presence of a heroic woman form the thread of the story. Also the Animated Weekly and Mutt and Jeff. No children admitted.

Sunday, November 26—Peerless Mme. Petrova in "Extravagance," a wonderplay of supreme power in five acts. The theme is a vital question in every home—the question of whether too much money is being spent—the question of extravagance. The picture deals with this problem in a most forcible manner. It shows a father who is careless about finances, daughter who loves finery. It shows the tragic incidents that result from such sailing. Petrova interprets the character of the spendthrift girl. Also Billie Ritchie in "Where Is My Wife?"—two reels of sidesplitting comedy.

Monday, November 27—One of Hart's best and that's going some! William S. Hart in "The Devil's Double." The play tells how the sinister gambler, beset by hard living and hatred for all that is good, is won by the wisp of a girl, to a life of honor and returned manhood. You'll not be disappointed. The play is a never-ending succession of tense situations handled by the star in the typical Hart style. Also latest Keystone comedy.

Tuesday, November 28—Ceo Madison in "The Chalice of Sorrow." A tragic story of fruitless love and hopeless sacrifice, one of the most beautiful pictures of the year. Also "Hans and Fritz" in their funny capers and a Nestor comedy. No children admitted.

Wednesday, November 29—Ella Hall and Rupert Julian in "The Bugler of Algiers." There is a strange and pathetic twist to this wonderful story that thrills the mind and fires the blood, that plays upon the entire range of human emotions in a manner so eloquent and so appealing for the entire human race. It teaches, it enlightens, it inspires and we recommend it to our patrons as a wonderful production. Also other pictures of great interest. Say—show me! Then come.

Thursday, November 30—Lillian Gish in "The Children Pay," by the selfishness of parents. This is a drama vital in theme and full of genuine human interest. Miss Gish brings home in striking fashion the sad handicaps that the children of divorced couples are forced to struggle against, and then there is a riot of Keystone fun in two parts. You'll be glad you saw—this great show.

Optimistic Thought.

Folly taxes us four times as much as congress.

NATIONAL THEATRE

Joe Welch, prince of all Hebrew comedians, in a highly finished revival of Hal Reid's four-act comedy drama, "The Peddler," will be the magnetic attraction that Manager Barrett will hold out for his legion of friends at the National theatre week of November 26.

Of the hit achieved by Joe Welch in this play there is no manner of doubt. None of the Jewish characteristics are burlesqued. Mr. Welch on the contrary, gives a true impersonation of a Jew that is well-known in New York, but not so well-known in the West—the quiet, old-fashioned, home-loving Jew who has not tried to keep pace with modern methods, but has been content to live a studious and philosophical life. "To burlesque a race or a man is easy," said Mr. Welch. "To present a character study of him is more difficult and requires study." The Jew has characteristics that lend themselves readily to burlesque and almost any man can don a wig and some loose clothing and a beard and go on the stage and present a disagreeable burlesque of a Jew—that is if the managers will permit him, which few of them will any more.

I have tried to avoid that. I want to present a type. I know my people, for I have studied them. Nobody will object to a faithful presentation of a type on the stage, unless the type is an objectionable one in itself. There is no finer class of men than the sturdy old men of the older generation of Jews on the East side of New York, with their love of home and family. That is the type I am presenting to the American people.

The play is brightly written and excellently cast. Pathos as well as merriment are in the theme, and very delightful it is as presented by Joe Welch and his efficient company of players.

Local and Personal News of Auburn Park, Gresham Brainerd and the South

St. Leo's Aid society is giving a card party every Tuesday evening.

Old gold and silver bought at Sandack's, 6312 Halsted St., upstairs.

We must have our locals in by Wednesday for publication that week.

Mrs. Dick Jack of 7824 Aberdeen St. had the Linen club as guests yesterday.

The Gad-About club were guests of Mrs. Draper of 85th St. and Lowe Ave. on Tuesday.

The Harmony club will give their reception and ball at Cosmopolitan hall the evening of December 9.

Louis Charles Wittt, who died at his home, 810 87th St., was buried Saturday from St. John's church, Jefferson, Wis.

There are many attractions offered for Thanksgiving day in the Park, and the majority of our people will stay home to be entertained.

The Harmony club of Auburn Park will give their annual reception and dancing party at Cosmopolitan hall the evening of December 9.

The city park officials are doing some much-needed work around the "little lakes" this fall, and planting shrubbery and perennial plants that will withstand the winter's cold. It will be a beautiful spot in the spring.

Mrs. George Cox of 7819 Carpenter St. entertained the S. U. S. Wednesday afternoon.

The ladies of the Auburn Park Baptist church will hold a bazaar on December 15 and 16 at Cosmopolitan hall.

Mr. John Mahoney of 7946 Union Ave., who was seriously injured on the Western Indiana a month ago, is recovering nicely.

The Auburn Park Council, Knights of Columbus, will give a minstrel show at Cosmopolitan hall on Wednesday evening, December 6.

Tim Weldon, the hustling lecturer of the Knights of Columbus, has arranged some splendid programs for their meetings for the winter. The knights are becoming more numerous every week, and we hope soon to see them in their own clubhouse.

The annual Thanksgiving service of the Englewood division, Christian Endeavor, will be held Thursday morning, November 30, at eight o'clock, at the Trinity R. E. church, 70th St. and Yale Ave. All Endeavors are urged to attend.

The Drexel Automobile works, at 76th and Wallace Sts., is increasing their already large plant, and expect soon to reach a capacity of 25 cars a day. This is largely an Auburn Park institution, in capital as well as location. Mr. J. H. McFarland of the Auburn State bank is president.

Mr. and Mrs. Jonas Hagey of 7655 Stewart Ave. have returned from a two-weeks' visit at Davenport, Ia.

A good solicitor may make good salary and have steady position by applying to Mr. Munns, 417 W. 63d St.

Mrs. J. Henry Wilson of 7725 Throop St., who died Monday of this week, was buried Wednesday afternoon at Oakwoods cemetery.

Mrs. Margaret Lowe and Miss Lowe of Delavan, Wis., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Warren D. Hollister of Beverly Hills.

Mrs. Fairbanks entertained the Union "500" club at her home, 8340 Morgan St., on Monday of last week, and Mrs. P. V. Brown of 7712 Green St. was hostess Wednesday.

The storeroom of the Western Indiana railway burned last Wednesday, with a loss of $10,000 to the company. The fire department was on hand promptly and did good work.

The Auburn Park Sunday Evening club opened its Sunday evening services last Sunday evening with an address by Albert Buell Lewis of the Field Museum staff on the "South Sea Islands." Professor Lewis went to the South Sea islands a few years ago for a tour of investigation of these half-civilized peoples. He was sent by the Field Museum of this city, and his tour covered a period of four years. He suffered many hardships and was often in danger of his life—many of islanders being cannibals. His account of his experiences, and the customs and habits of these islanders was very interesting. His address was illustrated by about sixty stereopticon pictures. The audience was large and was highly pleased, many remaining after the lecture to ask questions and meet the lecturer personally.

Our New Serial

"K" —yes, that's the name. Rather short title, but a story that's long in the elements that make you sit up late nights with a good book. K. Le Moyne has been a famous surgeon. That much Mrs. Rinehart lets you know soon after the story opens. But why, at the age of thirty, should he drop out of the world that has known him and come to the little town where Sidney Page lives?

Sidney is a strong beautiful girl, training hard to become a nurse. Perhaps it is because she is so happy and so young that life suddenly begins to press in upon her, crowding her ideals with puzzling, harsh realities. But, always there are friends who love and watch over her—and there is "K."

When the last installment is completed you will agree this is the best mystery story that you have read in many a day—a vivid page out of the book of life—a tale that will be greatly appreciated by young and old.

Saturday afternoon schedule: Two o'clock, gymnasium class, including the usual gymnasium work, open to girls who live too far from the field house to attend classes after school; 3:00, kickball and other team games; 3:30, volleyball practice; 4:15, games in gymnasium.

MEN'S GYMNASIUM.

Football games of Sunday, November 19, resulted as follows: Stewart A. C. defeated Monarch lightweights, 13 to 0; Monarch heavyweights defeated Ex-Monarchs, 14 to 7.

Basketball — Hamilton 95-pound team defeated the team from Ogden Park last Saturday, 40 to 2. Ninety-five-pound teams of Davis Square and Hamilton will play at Hamilton on Saturday, November 25. All wishing to secure places on the 125-pound team should report at the gymnasium, as the team will start practice at once.

LIBRARY.

The new rule which allows five books to be taken on one card is proving very popular with the patrons of the library and has greatly increased the number of books in circulation.

Come to the library for the latest magazines. One current magazine may be taken with five books, and six non-current magazines with four books.

Children's story hour every Wednesday afternoon at four o'clock for children from five to nine; at 4:30, children nine to twelve.

Auburn Park Sunday Evening Club.

The Auburn Park Sunday Evening club commenced its series of lectures for this season last Sunday evening, November 19. The place of meeting, as heretofore, will be the Auburn Park Congregational church, Normal Ave. and 77th St. The hour will be 7:45. A committee of ten men, all residents of Auburn Park, is in charge of the securing of speakers and making other arrangements for the services. The committee feels that it has been especially fortunate this year in the matter of speakers, arrangements having been made with a number of able and interesting speakers to appear during the winter. The list includes Dr. William S. Sadler of this city, who spoke two years ago to a capacity house. The eminent jurist, Hon. McKenzie Cleland, Professor Shoop, superintendent of our public schools, and Jenkin Lloyd Jones of the Abraham Lincoln center. Many of the lectures to be heard are given during the Chautauqua season for an admission of 50 or 75 cents, but the admission to these Sunday evening services will be free, the offering that will be taken going to defray incidental expenses. This has been made possible by the raising of a guaranty fund by the committee. The committee feels gratified over this, as it realizes that thereby it will be necessary to charge admission on Sunday evening, and also because it is the desire to give all the residents of Auburn Park a chance to hear these interesting speakers.

The speaker for next Sunday evening will be Dr. Jenkin Lloyd Jones, who for many years has been at the head of Lincoln center on the South side. Lincoln center is a Chicago institution, and Jenkin Lloyd Jones has won a reputation as an author and lecturer from one end of our land to the other, and even in England and Europe. The committee has had the good fortune to arrange with him to give his famous lecture, "What Makes a Home." This will be a treat for all who are able to attend, as it brings out Doctor Jones' ability as a speaker. All will be welcome. Ushers will be in attendance to show all who come good seats as long as they last.

Large cape collars appear on many of the new waists.

What's in a Name?

It is interesting to know how certain flowers got their names, observes London Tit Bits Many were named after individuals For instance fuchsias were so called after Leonard Fuchs Dahlias were named from Andre Dahl who brought them from Peru The camelia was so called from a missionary named Kamel, who brought some magnificent specimens of the flower to France from Japan He called it the Rose of Japan, but his friends changed it to camelia. Magnolias were named in honor of Professor Magnol de Montpellier, who first brought the beautiful trees to France from America and Asia The Latin word for "to wash" is "lavare" and lavender received its name because the Romans put the flowers into the water used for washing to perfume their hands.

At Last! Illuminated Keyholes.

Announcement was made at Harrisburg Pa, of the formation of the Violet Ray Enamel company, which will manufacture an enamel which will give a clear violet ray at night and be useful in enameling door fastenings locks, keyholes, house numbers and doorplates. — Pittsburgh Gazette-Times.

A Conservative Estimate.

Nine times out of ten, when a man "makes a good husband" for a woman, it is his wife who deserves all the credit.

OUR WANT COLUMN

Is the best medium of reaching people in the South part of the city, and our rate of one cent a word is exceptionally low, but we must insist that all such ads be paid for in advance and either brought to the office or sent by mail as we cannot afford to make bills and send collectors for same. This applies to everyone whether you are a friend to the editor or office boy, and we will positively make no exceptions, so please do not kick if your request to violate this rule is refused.

Chance for the Boys and Girls.

Every boy and girl wants a chance to make some extra money for the holidays, and we are offering them an opportunity to do so after school hours and on Saturdays. We are placing a number of subscription solicitors right in their own home districts and allowing them a very liberal commission by which they can easily make several dollars a day with little effort. Call early to get best territory. See Mr. Munns, Englewood Times office, 417 West 63d St.

Fear, the Tormentor.

How many useless torments are ours because of fear! Looking back over my own life I can see that most of my sufferings were due to fears, and that they were all, every one of them, both useless and poison. Of all the demons that ride poor mortals, fear is the most malicious.—Irish World.

Why We Refuse to Receive Ads by Telephone

Every day we receive calls over the telephone asking us to receive advertisements, especially for our "Want Column," and we must invariably refuse them. Our reasons are that our rates are so low (only one cent per word) that we cannot afford to keep books in that department or send out a collector, especially as most of the ads run less than 20 cents, and this about pays for composition. We have tried receiving these ads without payment in advance and found by experience that less than ten per cent of them were ever paid. Therefore we must insist that all ads for the Want Column be paid for in advance, and until the company invents some way to receive the money over the telephone, they must be brought to the office or sent by mail with stamps or silver to pay for them. It is easy to figure the amount as one cent must be allowed for every word used.

Three Great Physicians.

You have heard of the doctor who on his deathbed was heard to murmur that he left behind three great physicians. The three doctors at his bedside waited to hear their names and heard this: "Three—water, air and exercise." Well, all three are to be had for less than the asking, they are ours for the mere effort of taking them. Note that food is not mentioned, since all doctors agree that the human family eats too much all the time.

About Our Free Church Notices

We devote our entire second page to church and religious announcements and news, and do not charge a penny for them, but we will not publish sermons or unfavorable comments upon any church or form of belief, paid or otherwise. Advertisements of paid functions must be paid for, and all display ads, but we welcome announcements of any and all denominations. We have found it necessary to refuse some alleged church news which was anything but Christian, and writers of this stuff are simply wasting their time in sending it to us. Many churches duplicate their notices, and others never change theirs. We would suggest that the pastor or someone else be delegated to attend to these announcements, and mail or bring them to us before Wednesday noon of each week. We will be glad to publish them free and give them proper space and attention.

"Kronstadt."

An interesting legend is told concerning the origin of the name of the city of Kronstadt. The old town hall is supposed to stand on the spot where a golden crown was found in the stump of a tree in 1204. The royal emblem was believed to have remained hidden here for more than 100 years. It was identified as having belonged to King Solomon of Hungary, who concealed it lest it fall into the hands of the pursuing Bulgarians. Hence the name, Kron Stadt.

"I DON'T SUFFER ANY MORE"

"Feel Like a New Person," says Mrs. Hamilton.

New Castle, Ind.—"From the time I was eleven years old until I was seventeen I suffered each month so I had to be in bed. I had headache, backache and such pains I would cramp double every month. I did not know what it was to be easy a minute. My health was all run down and the doctors did not do me any good. A neighbor told my mother about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I took it, and now I feel like a new person. I don't suffer any more and I am regular every month."—Mrs. HAZEL HAMILTON, 822 South 15th St.

When a remedy has lived for forty years, steadily growing in popularity and influence, and thousands upon thousands of women declare they owe their health to it, is it not reasonable to believe that it is an article of great merit?

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

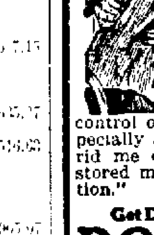
Meat Eaters' Backache

Meat lovers are apt to have backaches and rheumatic attacks. Unless you do heavy work and get lots of fresh air, don't eat too much meat. It's rich in nitrogen and helps to form uric acid—a solid poison that irritates the nerves, damages the kidneys and often causes dropsy, gravel and urinary disorders. Doan's Kidney Pills help weak kidneys to throw off uric acid. Thousands recommend them.

An Illinois Case



S. W. Shoemaker, 1206 Walnut St., Cairo, Ill., says: "I suffered from a weak back all my life with racking pains through my loins. Once I was seized with such a terrible pain in my back that I had to get down on my knees. My head ached, I had dizzy spells and my weight decreased. I had no control over the kidney secretions, especially at night. Doan's Kidney Pills rid me of all these troubles and restored my kidneys to a normal condition."

DO IT NOW, GOOD WATCHWORD

Habit of Procrastination Has Never Yet Failed to Bring Train of Evils in Its Wake.

"Sometime" is a useful word that is often overworked, remarks the Milwaukee Journal. One says, "Sometime I will do it," but the time never comes. Sometime is no time when a kind deed is to be done. Sometime is no time when a definite task is to be done. A thing put off beyond its rightful time encroaches on time allotted by right to other duties. One may think he is gaining time by postponing the duty of the hour. In fact, he is wasting time. "Tomorrow" and ever "tomorrow" has been the ruin of many. Do now the thing thatshould be done now. Have you had a quarrel, and are you ready for a reconciliation? Do not postpone it. The other person may get hardened in his views and become unwilling to be reconciled. He may die and leave to you a lasting regret that you had not made friends. Would you help someone? Do not wait till help is past being help. Put off till "tomorrow" mending the fence, and your neighbor's cattle will have found the weak place and made havoc with your grain. Put off paying your insurance, and perhaps a fire will destroy all you have. Debts do notgrow less by postponing payment. "Do it now" is a good watchword. Say the kind word, do the kind deed, perform the duty of the hour.

A full-grown elephant yields 120 pounds of ivory.

SAW NO USE IN GETTING UP

Correspondent in City Visited by Zeppelins Simply Stayed in Bed and Touched Wood.

I was billeted at the time of the first Zeppelin raid in a little, smelly house of three floors and six apartments. The house was packed with the original tenants, Jew and Greek, together with such lodgers as myself. In our flat of four rooms and a kitchen were the landlord and his lady, four sons and two daughters. The sons slept on the sitting-room floor, and if you came home in the dark you were likely to tread on them. Two French officers shared the best bedrooms, while I slept alone in the second best. "Bang-bang-bang" went the bombs from the Zeppelin; the French officers cried "En bas!" and the boys banged at my door yelling "Embros!" which is Greek for "Forwards!" As it didn't seem to matter much where one went, the whole thing, falling dugouts, being purely a question of luck, I stayed in bed and touched wood. The crashes of the big bombs were terrifying. The house shook with each explosion; but as all things—good or bad—must come to an end, so too, after a while, ended this busines. A wonderful orange-colored blaze lit up the world outside, and so I got out of bed and watched it, deciding at last to dress and see things at close quarters.—Albert Kinross, in the Atlantic.

ADDITIONAL ENGLEWOOD NEWS

Louis Timmins of 6618 Normal Ave. spent Saturday in Urbana, where he attended the football game.

Don't miss the opening chapters of our new serial story "K," which will begin soon.

The daughter of Mrs. M. T. Whitney of 5912 Normal Ave. returned Friday to her home in St. Louis, Mo.

Order your Christmas photos now. Jarvis Weed, 329 West 69th St. Tele. Went. 999. (12-1)

Owing to the late rush of news matter, we are compelled to omit our serial this week.

Mrs. Catherine Gilliard of 5955 La Salle St., died Wednesday evening, November 15, at her home. Burial at Mt. Olivet.

Miss Mary Lewis of Norway, Mich., will spend Thanksgiving and the week-end with her sister, Mrs. H. D. Mann, of 444 60th Pl.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph King, 65th and Eggleston Ave., are spending a two weeks' visit among relatives in Scotland, Ind.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Blyth of Humboldt park, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Tyanes of S. Fifth Ave., Sunday.

The remains of Mrs. Mary Lennan, who died at her home, 6520 Normal Blvd., were taken to her former home in Cincinnati, O., Tuesday.

Mrs. G. H. Fieser, formerly of 336 W. 65th St., has returned from a seven months' trip in the South, is living now at his cousin's, Mr. C. C. Cox, 509 Englewood Ave.

The Englewood streets have more than their fair share of beggars and fake peddlers who are simply charity solicitors. Fully one-half of these people are professionals and dishonest.

Mrs. Hubert Zander of Union Ave. will entertain her two aunts, Mrs. Charlotte Gardner and Mrs. Walter Blyth, from Humboldt park at dinner, Wednesday.

The annual Thanksgiving service of the Englewood division, Christian Endeavor, will be held Thursday morning, November 30, at eight o'clock at the Trinity R. E. church, 70th St. and Yale Ave. All Endeavorers urged to attend.

The Englewood hotel, located at 6311-13 Parnell Ave., has opened a cozy homelike dining room. The public is invited to enjoy the best of home cooking at the lowest prices consistent with quality, quantity and service.

Charles Tinsman of Ann Arbor, Mich., brother of Mr. Homer Tinsman of Englewood, died suddenly at his home November 16. Burial occurred at Mt. Hope. Mr. Charles Tinsman was at one time leader of the choir of the Englewood M. E. church.

Anton Schlatt, who died at his home, 229 61st Pl., last Saturday, was buried Wednesday at Mt. Olivet. Mr. Schlatt was fifty-four years of age and leaves a wife and daughter to mourn his death. Services were held at St. Bernard's church.

Lehnard Brothers have fitted up a club-smoking room fronting on the courtway under the "L," and all of the eloquent orators of the town assemble there and discuss the affairs of the day. It is the "Temple of Fame" of Englewood and attracts an appreciative crowd at all times.

A letter from "Uncle" John Whitley, now of Pasedena, Cal., assures us that despite of all the doctors, nurses and cooks at the hospital there, he has recovered and is "still in the ring," and grateful to his old Englewood friends for their many expressions of sympathy and well wishes. "Uncle" John is the kind of man we wish would never die, his jolly kindliness and entirely human sympathies are cheerful at all times, and the world is much the better for "Uncle" John's having lived.

The Woman's Guild of St. Bartholomew's church, Stewart Ave. and Normal Pkwy., have planned an unusual bazaar to be held on the afternoon and evening of December 6 in Barbee hall, Wentworth Ave. and 69th St., unusual in the fact that all the wares on sale will be priced low. There will be many pretty things and useful things and there will be here an opportunity to get Christmas gifts at moderate prices and at the same time do a worthy church organization a favor.

Englewood High School News

There will be a meeting of the 4-A girls next Monday to discuss the class ball and the class play which they are about to give.

The December issue of the "E" will be out some time in the first week in December. Copies of this issue will be on sale at the school door.

The lightweight soccer team is showing up fairly well, winning its first game in the finals by defeating Schurz 2 to 1 in a hard-fought game at Bricklayers' field.

The 4A class is giving a dance November 24 to raise money enough to give a senior play. All the students are urged to attend this dance and will be guaranteed a good time. Tickets will be 10c.

The trip to the Western Electric plant, which 60 Englehoosters took, proved to be a great success. The boys were shown every courtesy by the owners of the plant and left with more knowledge than they had entered the plant with.

The senior A class has decided to give a play on its class day, which will be sometime in the latter part of February. The name of the play will be "A Single Man." Those in the cast are Louis Hieronimous, Eva Kohl, Estelle Cox, the two Hull sisters, Pauline and Georgia, Donald Gately and Ted Joslyn.

The heavyweight soccer team by defeating the Schurz high last Saturday practically assured itself of the city championship. Under Mr. Paterson's good coaching Englewod has already had two Cook county championships and they will be presented with the beautiful Peel shield if they obtain the third.

The school play, under Miss Courtney's coaching, is coming along in fine shape. The commercial department is taking care of the financial end of the play, the carpenter shop and the art classes are planning stage settings, and Miss Evans is taking care of the costuming of the players. The date set for the performance is December 14 and 15.

The Chicago Association of Commerce has arranged through the Englehoosters to give about 50 or 60 boys a trip to the Western Electric's Hawthorne plant. Some boys from this school enjoyed a trip of this kind last year, and if we may take their word for it, they were treated like princes, being shown every courtesy and favor.

The school play, "Quality Street," written by James Barry, is coming along in excellent shape and will be produced in Junior hall on December 14 and 15. The performance of the 14th will be given in the afternoon and the performance of the 15th will be given in the evening. Tickets for the matinee will be 25 cents and for the evening performance 50, 35 and 25 cents.

Englewood high school is in line for three city or, perhaps Cook county championships—in football, heavyweight soccer and lightweight soccer. The football team by its defeat of Evanston assures itself of the Cook county championship. There only remains one team for them to defeat, namely, Crane. As Crane has not shown a very strong team this year Englewood feels confident of victory.

A training system for bandmen is being tried in the high school. We already have about twenty well-trained men, members for the most part of bands in the neighborhood. Pupils who can buy band instruments are given time in school under the instruction of an experienced man to learn to play. Learners are then taken in groups by the director and given ensemble work from which they are promoted to the band or orchestra. Parents who want their children to learn instrumental music should consult with Mr. Bowlin at the high school or call him by phone at his home.

At one time it was greatly feared that Englewood high school would be closed because of an epidemic of typhoid fever. We are glad to announce that this epidemic has been checked and that most of the pupils and teachers afflicted have returned to school or have almost recovered from the effects of the disease. Celeste DeAlb, Florence Sweet, Louis Hieronimous and Hannah Abarbanel are the students who have been ill and who have recovered sufficiently to return to school. Two of the faculty, Miss Farley and Miss Quinn, who were taken with the disease, have not returned to school yet, but reports say that they will be back in a few weeks.

General Church News

The Philemon Bible class of Marquette Road Baptist church invites all young people to Sunday school, every Sunday morning at 9:45. Come and enjoy the good lessons with us. Marquette Rd. and Laflin St.

Owing to the late rush of news matter, we are compelled to omit our serial this week.

Dr. D. B. Brummitt will preach next Sunday morning at the Englewood M. E. church.

Class 25 of the Christian Sunday school was entertained last Sunday at the home of Mrs. O. A. Harding of 7120 Normal Ave.

Class 14 of the Presbyterian church met Tuesday evening with Miss Myra Timmins of 6618 Normal Ave.

Class 22 of the Christian Sunday school held its annual banquet at the church last night. A splendid program was heard.

Union Thanksgiving services will be held at the Englewood M. E. church on Thursday at eleven o'clock. Rev. Charles M. Kessler of the Covenant Baptist church will preach the sermon.

Under the auspices of class 5 A of the Christian Sunday school the colored jubilee singers will give a musical and literary program at the church Thanksgiving evening.

Class 5 A of the Englewood Christian church will give another concert on Thanksgiving evening in the church auditorium. Colored singers. Ice cream and cake served afterwards, 10 cents. Their first concert held last June was a big success, but word has come that this is to be twice as good. Better come and find out. Everybody invited.

The Current Topics circle of the Baptist church met yetserday afternoon with Mrs. E. E. De Forest of 6428 Union Ave., Mrs. Whitney assisting hostess.

Mrs. H. W. Cannon of 6129 Stewart Ave. entertains the Reading circle of the Englewood M. E. church this afternoon. Assisting hostesses, Mesdames Clark, Staver, Beish and Stewart.

The teachers and superintendent of the first grade juniors entertained the little people at a Thanksgiving party last Saturday afternoon at the Baptist church house.

The Delca girls held their initiation last Saturday afternoon and evening at the home of Mildred Seitz, the secretary, 6518 Ross Ave. A theatre party will be given next week to welcome the new members.

To meet the need of the people in the north end of Englewood a Thanksgiving service will be held in the North Congregational church, 59th and La Salle Sts., Thanksgiving morning at 10:30.

Daily Thought.

We might enjoy to their utmost many things that we now spoil by the selfish craze for possession. Why should the velvet lawn and strip of woodland cease to be a pleasure and become a source of jealousy and heartache because it is our neighbor's?—Anon.

Kidney Disorder

(BY DR. V. M. PIERCE.)

The most simple methods are usually the most effective ones when treating any disorder of the human system. The mere drinking a cup of hot water each morning, plenty of pure water all day, and a little Anuric before every meal has been found the most effective means of overcoming kidney trouble. Death would occur if the kidneys did not work day and night in separating poisons and uric acid from the blood.

The danger signals are backache, depressions, pains, heaviness, drowsiness, irritability, headaches, chilliness, rheumatic twinges, swollen joints or gout.

Since it is such a simple matter to step into your favorite drug store and obtain Anuric, anyone who earnestly desires to regain health and new life will waste no time in beginning this treatment.

PROVED EQUAL TO OCCASION

Super's Blunder Merely Served to Show the Resourcefulness of Hamilton Footlites.

Dewey, discussing the naval battle of Skagerrak, said at a Washington luncheon:

"A naval officer, to succeed, must be very quick-witted and resourceful. In fact, he must be like Hamilton Footlites.

"Ham Footlites leaned on the rail of his sea-going yacht soliloquizing about love while the blue waves rolled and heaved splendidly, each blue wave being a super under a roll of canvas.

"But the waves were here and there threadbare, and suddenly a wave ripped and a head bobbed up in the midst of the heaving sea and stared around in bewildered fashion.

"Ham Footlites silenced the audience's titters with one stern glance.

"'Man overboard!' he yelled in stentorian tones.

"Then the super, managing to draw back his head through the hole in the wave, disappeared. Ham Footlites heaved a stormy sigh.

"'Another victim seized by the relentless sea, alas,' he said."

Gale of Trouble.

During one of our gales an elderly gentleman was striving to reach his home with the assistance of his son.

Just as they passed along a row of small houses there was a loud crash, and a heavy tin chimney-pot struck the pavement at their very feet.

"Good heavens!" gasped the feeble old man. "That was a narrow escape. It might have killed us both."

They paused for a moment to examine the fallen chimney, and at once a window was banged up and a shrill female voice shrieked:

"Ere, you two, you needn't think as you're a-goin' to steal that there thing, 'cause it belongs to my 'ouse!"—London Answers.

Why the Baby Cries.

Now we know why the baby cries. For a long time the cause was veiled in obscurity. It might be an inaccessible pin, or it might be the helpless discrepancy betwixt the heavenly kingdom and this world, or it might be a plain case of colic, called by what newfangled term you please. It has remained for George B. Hotchkiss of the University School of Commerce, addressing editors and publishers of trade journals in New York, to discover that the baby cries in order to advertise. It is the baby's effective announcement, in the imperative mood, that he wants to be taken up and petted, or he wants the moon, or he wants something else, and "he won't be happy till he gets it." There is no denying that for an infant industry the baby's advertising is a great success. Nearly every time he gets results, and the most astute and alert professional solicitor cannot show a higher percentage of success.

SULLIVAN'S SENSE AND NONSENSE

The Editor's Thanksgiving.

What's that? You bet I'm thankful;
don't you see this two-bit smile?
Why, things for me look brighter than they have for quite a while.
Of course, it peeved me when my print
got stewed and broke the press
And pied the forms, but I can get things straightened up, I guess.
That libel suit nish got my goat; but why should I repine?
I haven't got a cent, and so they can't collect the fine;
And then my wife a-leaving me—that gave me quite a jar,
But I am glad that things ain't any worse than what they are.
My mortgage will fall due next month,
but I don't grieve nor fret;
They say they'll send me out, but then they aren't done it yet;
And tho licked seven times today,
you'll never hear me speak;
I'm still alive and put the little dope shoot out each week.
Those guys who always kick and squeal, they ought to have a nurse.
I've hit some rocky roads myself, but then they could be worse;
And so I still retain my poise and wear
my two-bit smile,
And things to me look brighter than they have for quite a while.

A tale time has been going the round's tells how an old bachelor found attached to a pair of socks a note from a factory girl, pining for a soul-mate. He responded and after waiting with hope for some days, received this note: "Dear Mr. Bach: Your note, addressed to my mamma, pleases me very much. I am now eighteen years old. It's odd you should have been all this time getting her note, but I suppose the merchant from whom you bought the socks did not advertise."

Yes, you are pretty certain to find things in the paper that you don't care for and some things that don't exactly suit you. It is to be expected that you will and it makes no difference what paper is referred to. If the paper were gotten out solely and exclusively for you it might be arranged differently, but it is gotten out for the other several thousands as well. Do with newspapers as you would with the dinner course at the hotel—take what you want and pass up what you don't care for. It was set out for the other fellow, not all for you.

While prospecting down in Georgia some years ago I was overtaken by night and asked for supper and lodgings. Soon after the frugal meal a tall, gaunt youth of about eighteen and an equally sallow and gaunt girl of seventeen, both barefooted, took their hats from wooden pegs in the wall and prepared to go out, whereupon the mother, taking her pipe from between her yellow teeth, said, reprovingly: "Go long an' wash your feet, Levi, you an' Looly both! Hain't you 'shamed to go off to an evenin' party without washin' your feet?" They obeyed, but as Levi took a washpan from a bench by the door, he said, with a grumble: "I'd 'bout as soon stay home from a party as to have to fix up for it!"

A well-known business man once had a customer who contracted a debt that ran along unpaid for a year or more, and even several letters failed to bring about a settlement. One day, while glancing over the religious notices in a local paper, the business man saw something that gave him a new idea. He went to his desk and wrote the following note to the debtor: "My dear sir: I see in the local press that you are to deliver an address on Friday evening before the Y. M. C. A. on 'The Sinner's Unbalanced Account.' I inclose yours, as yet unbalanced, and trust that I may have the pleasure of attending your lecture."

The old pensioner who blew the bellows for the organ had a most exasperating failing. In spite of frequent admonitions he would continue blowing after the music had stopped, thereby producing undesirable sounds. One day the organist could stand it no longer. The congregation had been set tittering by the old man's forgetfulness and during the sermon the organist seized the opportunity to write him a note on the matter and handed it to the choir boy to deliver. Misunderstanding the whispered directions, the lad handed the note straight up to the preacher, who astoundedly read the following: "Will you stop when I tell you to? People come here to listen to my music, not to your horrible noise."

Fall Festival Musical Success

Civic Music clubs, Madam Claussen of the Chicago Opera company, the Chicago Symphony orchestra, Frederick stock conducting, and a large and enthusiastic audience combined to make the fall festival a pronounced musical and financial success.

The choral numbers given by the adult chorus—clubs from Sherman, Hamilton and Fuller parks and Lane Technical High school, Rossetter Cole conducting and the children's chorus (children's clubs from Mark White and Armour squares, the Jenner school, Seward, Hamilton and Fuller parks), under the direction of Edward Collins, demonstrated the excellent training given in civic music classes.

The proceeds of the festival, $2,000, will help to cover the expense of carrying on the work of the association. Its activities in this community are the adult and children's choruses and the series of concerts given during the winter.

Thirty-Second Ward Civic Club

The Thirty-Second Ward Civic league will meet in the field house at Hamilton park on the afternoon of Thursday, December 7. The speaker will be Mrs. Stella S. Jamotta; subject, "Over-Population and Birth Control."

Englewood Women's Club Monday Meeting.

Business Meeting Follows Music Study Program—Next Monday Professor Terry, on "The French Revolution"—Miss Abbott on "Immigration Problems" in the Morning—An Economical Thanksgiving to Be Proposed to the Club.

Mrs. Titus presided at the second morning program of the music study class, which was held Monday of this week. Mrs. Smith was kind enough to read an anonymous paper on "Youth" in music, which dealt very largely with the teacher's viewpoint of appealing to expression of some phase of oneself and enlarging upon the pleasure of self-expression rather than technical perfection. Pupils from the centralizing school, all under fifteen years of age, illustrated with attractive and well-executed selections. Reports followed the program.

In the afternoon was held the second business session of the club for the current season. Mrs. Roberts presided. Mrs. Nicholls read the minutes and announcements. Mrs. Leigh announced the exhibition to be given next Monday morning and afternoon under the auspices of the art, and also the education, departments, of work done by the blind. Charles E. Comstock of the State Institute for the blind will speak. Mrs. Robert E. Barbee of 6643 Harvard Ave. will entertain the French salon at her home Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Wyant announced again the reading circles being held weekly in the homes of Mesdames Brill, Charles Clark and Donn. Members interested in psychology and the subconscious were invited to enjoy these informal hours. Mrs. Kindred announced next Monday morning's program which the sociology department will present. Miss Grace Abbott will speak on "The City Problem in Immigration." Mrs. Frisbie will speak on the education of the adult foreigner according to the Detroit plan. Mrs. Stebbings reminded the ladies of the evening meeting tonight, when the gentlemen are welcomed especially, "Fanny's First Play," read by Marion Craig Wentworth and the club chorus will constitute the evening's entertainment. Mrs. Edinger announced the junior party for Friday evening, December 1. Mrs. Haskell told of the breakfast to be given December 2 at the Auditorium at eleven o'clock by the Woman's party. Request was made for women willing to make bed shirts to assist the Red Cross, which has asked the Englewood Woman's club to make 25. Mrs. Eulette has charge of the list. Miss Ransom of the Practical Housekeeping center was introduced and spoke of the good the two centers are accomplishing, one in the Italian district and one in the stock yards, at 1748 Bishop St. Reports were made by the treasurer, Mrs. Tower; Mrs. Manahan, infant welfare; Mrs. Ingalls, refreshment committee; Mrs. Campbell, membership (who announced 18 new members); Mrs. Avery, political science; Mrs. Lobaugh, Third district meeting; Mrs. Leigh, Municipal Art league; Mrs. Allen, Sarah Hackett Stevenson home; Mrs. Haskell, Juvenile Protective association; Doctor Gurney, Outdoor Art league; Mrs. Young (read by Mrs. Edinger), Neighborhood House; Mrs. McCormack, Public School Art society; Mrs. Stebbings, Legal Aid society. It was voted to send delegates selected by the president, Mrs. Roberts, to the legislative congress, to be held here in the near future. The following donations were voted out: $15 to the Municipal Art league, $25 to the juvenile court for lunches for the young offenders, $50 to the Sarah Hackett Stevenson home, $35 to the Americanization committee to assist in the naturalization of the adult foreigner. Mrs. Pendry asked that a committee be appointed to draw up resolutions for a "sane" Thanksgiving, to eliminate the many extravagances attendant upon this season, especially this year of high prices, when they can be so poorly afforded. Mrs. Pendry, Mrs. Thielens and Miss Hesse were appointed to prepare these resolutions, which are to be presented next Monday to the club at large.

Next Monday will bring Prof. Arthur G. Terry of Northwestern university to the platform to deliver the first of two lectures on the French revolution in 1789. The morning, as said before, will be in charge of the sociology department, Miss Abbott speaking on the "City Problem of Immigration."

Englewood Free Forum.

The Englewood Free Forum was organized recently for the purpose of discussing current public questions of interest to all. Mr. John T. Vaughan, a lecturer of national repute, has kindly volunteered his valuable services. All meetings have been well attended by interested persons of both sexes. It is certain everyone attending these meetings will be assured of a pleasant and profitable time. The subjects discussed, although being of a serious nature, are entertainingly blended with laugh provoking stories illustrating clearly what is intended to be conveyed. Next Friday evening at 8 p. m. in Bromstedt's hall, 63d and Halsted Sts., the eight-hour law, generally referred to as the Adamson bill, will be the topic for discussion. This should be especially interesting to workers, business men, sociological and church workers of every shade of opinion.

Normal Park M. E. Banquet.

The fifth annual banquet of the Normal Park M. E. church was celebrated in the parlors of the church November 21, there being 165 plates served. This is the largest banquet which was ever served in the church, and the address made by Dr. Lynn Harold Hough on "A Look Ahead" made those present realize that there are great possibilities for those who have the ambition to go forward and the desire to be what their mothers expect them to be. Dr. Hough's mother was present and was presented with a large bouquet of flowers. The toastmaster, Mr. A. L. Fuller, did credit to himself and to the church, and all those present realized that they had not made a mistake when he had been selected. The menu consisted of turkey and all that goes with it, and the ladies of the church saw to it that there was nothing omitted which could be attached to this dinner. The pastor, Rev. Walter C. Scott, closed the evening with a few remarks in which he urged personal evangelism by everyone present in the hope that this year might be the best year which Normal Park has ever had.

New York's North River.

The name North river was given to the Hudson in contradistinction to the Delaware, that was the south boundary of the Dutch colony, regardless of their positions toward the cities of New York and Philadelphia—which, as "cities," were then babes in arms.

The Englewood Sunday Evening Club.

It is with pleasure that we announce that our guest and speaker next Sabbath evening will be a man unique in the history of public speaking in the city of Chicago, a man who has created his own place in the public life of the city. We go to "Who's Who in America" for a little detailed information before we pass on to our own comment. We find that he was born in Michigan, graduated from the Linden high school, was a student at Alma college, Michigan, studied law at Flint and did special work in the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor. He became pastor of the Grand Blanc Presbyterian church of Grand Blanc, Mich., in 1907. He became pastor of the Church of Providence of Chicago in 1911, and July 1, 1912, began preaching independently, founding the People's church, which first met on the corner of Clark and Addison streets. In October, 1913, this independent organization moved to the Wilson Avenue theater, since which time Doctor Bradley has been preaching to an audience of over 1,000 people every Sunday morning. He is a lecturer on the drama, philosophy, art and literature, speaking before immense audiences on these specialties. He is a member of the Art institute, Little Theater society of Chicago, the Drama League of America, the London Stage Society of England, Playgoer's club, the Progressive club and the Chicago Press club.

So much for detail concerning his history. We wish to announce, however, that the man is unique. He is a natural-born orator and has all the tricks of the trade marvelously developed. He is no stranger to the people of Englewood, for only a short while ago, at the Men's Fellowship banquet of the Pilgrim Congregational church, he spoke eloquently on the subject of "Appreciation," and those who heard him at that time will want to hear him again. His ability to meet an emergency was wonderfully demonstrated one Sunday afternoon during the Business Men's carnival, when, expecting an audience of about twelve hundred, he found only about two hundred on hand. However, in spite of this, he made a most eloquent and stirring address. Those who heard him on that occasion, we know will want to hear him again. He comes to us next Sabbath evening and speaks on the subject, "The Immoral Story of Jean Valjean," which he believes to be a most marvelous interpretation of a fight with conscience. We have heard him in this stirring and dramatic recital, and we have never heard that matchless story of Victor Hugo's any better told. We commend it for its literary value, its educational value and its inspirational power.

The auditorium of the Englewood Presbyterian church has been taxed to its limit during the last two Sundays, and we are fully convinced that those who wish to hear Doctor Bradley next Sabbath evening will need to attend early, for the fame of the man has spread abroad widely. Remember that our service commences promptly at 7:30 o'clock. It is also with pleasure that we announce that Mary Highsmith Lyding, soprano, will sing two numbers. Mr. George R. Kurtz, organist, will play.

Not Much on Looks.

Diner (looking at order)—"This isn't a very good-looking piece of meat." Waiter—"Well, you ordered a plain steak."

Englewood W. C. T. U.

The last regular meeting of the Garfield W. C. T. U. was held at the home of Mrs. Vitu. A good attendance, business session, intellectual and education numbers were the results of the afternoon. Our delegates to the W. C. T. U. state convention, held in Joliet the latter part of October, reported the best and most profitable state convention ever held. Alaska is in the midst of a dry campaign which they expect to put through at their next election. Every coast city in Alaska has a W. C. T. U. One union of 40 members raised $5,000 for dry territory.

Mrs. W. J. Barry talked on prison and jail work. This is her special line of work, going to the county jail every Sunday afternoon and conducting religious services with the inmates, as well as devoting much other time to this very important work. The fact that young boys who have committed some minor offenses are allowed to remain in the same room with older, deep-dyed criminals, with nothing intellectual to occupy their time, is deplorable.

Mrs. Emelia Hendrickson of 5945 Union Ave. will entertain the social meeting December 1, at 2 p. m. Good music, good speaking, good time for all. Every member is expected to bring a guest.

Christmas Life-Saver!

Right here in Englewood on December 1 the Pathephone Co. opens its store with a full line of Pathephones ($15 to $225) and Pathedises (65c to $4.00).

The Pathephone plays all make records, and is absolutely the only STANDARD machine that does! And it plays the other make records BETTER than the machines for which they were originally made! We ask to demonstrate this for you at our store.

Only Pathe records bring you the music of artists of every nation, there being at this date over 100,000 records to choose from! Pathe discs are all two-sided, never wearing out because of the sapphire jewel used on them.

And, best of all, the PATHEPHONE is the ONLY machine entirely free from metallic and scratchy tones. Be fair to yourself and pocketbook! Hear the best at

THE ENGLEWOOD PATHEPHONE SHOP,

Open from 12 noon until 10:30 p. m.

Annual Thanksgiving Band Concert

On Thanksgiving day, November 30, the Englewood Concert band will give their annual concert at the Englewood Baptist church, at 8:15 p. m. The band will be assisted by the Imperial quartette, Mrs. Hazel Rice Swift, reader and whistler, Master Frederick H. Rinquist, boy soprano. Everyone invited.

Why He Went to Freddie's.

"Why do you always tease to go over to Freddie's to play?" asked Uncle Charlie of his nephew. "Why don't you have him come over here once in a while?" "Oh," replied Jack, "I don't have to be careful at Freddie's house."

All Credit Belongs to Woman.

"K"

By

Mary Roberts Rinehart

(Copyright, by McClure Publications, Inc.)

HIGHEST PAID WOMAN WRITER

Mary Roberts Rinehart, Author of "K," Commands Big Money for Her Stories.

Mary Roberts Rinehart, the author of our new serial, "K," is conceded the foremost writer of mystery stories and highest paid woman author in America. Her first story, "The Circular Staircase," was a huge success and established her reputation. Subsequent stories including "The Man in Lower Ten," and "When a Man Marries," were even more popular and demonstrated that her first work was not a "flash in the pan."

Immediately the European war started, Mrs. Rinehart went abroad for one of the big weekly periodicals and her reports from the stricken territory were among the best written.

Mrs. Rinehart is not a college woman. She went through high school like hundreds of thousands of other girls, and then looked about her to discover in what manner she could make a living. Trained nursing looked good, so as Mary Roberts she took a course at Pittsburgh Training school. There she met young Dr. Stanley Rinehart, just starting his career, and a friendship began that ended in marriage.

It has long been said that a family physician and a parish priest eventually learn all the tragedy and human weakness and mystery and intrigue and goodness and villainy there is in the world. Undoubtedly the family physician confides freely in his wife, if she is a person of discretion; and if she has imagination and talent she may turn what she learns into good fiction. This seems to have been the case with Mrs. Rinehart.

She was married 12 years and had reached her thirty-second year before she turned her hand to literature. Almost everybody enjoys her work because she writes from the point of view of one who knows life in all its queer phases.

Without a doubt, that is the reason "K" is such an interesting story. It shows genuine knowledge of human relations from many angles. In this story Mrs. Rinehart has taken the kind of persons that people have known all their lives—our neighbors' sons and daughters and wives and sisters and babies and grandparents—and has made them living characters in a fascinating story. You see them in their strength and weakness, their joy and sorrow, their ambition and hope, their love and hate.

One installment of "K" will appear in every issue of this paper until it is completed, and after reading the first one you will not be satisfied until you have read them all.

The U-boat issue is all the better for being kept submerged.
